And the Clock Keeps Teaching*, 2017

Oil on canvas board, 16" x 20"

Opening bid: $1,500

Artist statement:

And the Clock Keeps Ticking is my reaction to the Goddard clock and clocks in general. I wanted, through my painting, to suggest movement and the sense that we cannot stop time, however much we wanted to. We live through time and as we grow older time just seems to accelerate.
