

Bennington Monument quiz

- How tall is the Monument, from the level of the ground to the top of the star?
 - 188 feet
 - 306 feet 4¼ inches
 - 102 feet 2½ inches
 - 100 yards
- The bronze star at the top of the Monument is not just for decoration. What is its main purpose? (Hint: it's connected to the ground).
 - it warns low-flying airplanes
 - it serves as a cell phone tower
 - it conducts electricity
 - it keeps the pigeons away
- About how many people take the elevator to the Monument's observation deck every year?
 - 2,500
 - 10,000
 - 24,000
 - 33,000
- When was the first commemoration of the Battle of Bennington?
 - 1778
 - 1877
 - 1891
 - 1962
- When was the Monument built?
 - 1791-93
 - 1887-89
 - 1902-04
 - 1934-36
- There are two statues of men at the Monument and one of an animal. Who are the men and what is the animal?
- Which is taller, the Washington Monument or the Bennington Monument?
- Which is higher, the Washington Monument or the Bennington Monument?
- True or false: Someone has to change the red warning-light bulb at the top of the Monument every six months.
- True or false: the stairs inside the Monument are modeled on the stairs inside a palace in Rome that was designed by Michelangelo.
- True or false: Spiderman climbed the Monument in "Spiderman 2: The Battle Continues."