

Paedra Bramhall

Self-Portrait

Print #1/12 [no others have yet been printed]

May 28, 2013

54 x 40 inches

Opening Bid: $775

Artist Statement:

This is a self-portrait and in such shows the all of me for those who have eyes to see.

<http://www.newildernesstrust.org/2018/10/01/exceptional-vermont-forest-takes-a-giant-step-closer-to-permanent-protection/>

Biography:

I AM a native Vermonter

I AM a graduate of THE CLEVELAND INSTITUTE OF ART 1965-1970 with a major in Sculpture and a minor in Ceramics.

I AM a maker and a dreamer whose mentors are: David Sanders, John Paul Miller, John Clague, Julian Stanczak, Rodger Lang, Fritz Driesbach, David Sellers, Ellison Lieberman.

MY MENTORS

gave me to question

gave me eyes to see

gave me a secure place to grow

gave me to first breath life into bronze and into glass and onto paper and into a self-designed/self-built home and studios

I AM a self supporting artist since 1970

I AM an individual who has never worked for anyone else

I AM an artist whose VISION ranges from the current PATRIOTIC Painting Series "AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL", to a quad Painting, "4 VIEWS OF JENNIFER" 88"H x 100"W, to a 10" x 10" x 12" Installation Sculpture "SANCTUM OF THE FEMININE DIVINE", to a Performance Piece "TRANSITION", to a 9" x 10" x 6" bronze fountain (cast in my studio; 4000 lbs, 3 1/2 years work),

to a 35 lb "INTERIOR", Art Glass, blown and documented by VETV

I AM an individual who is OUT and PROUD as Transgendered

I AM a person who honors his birth name with Paedra

I AM An Artist. A Designer. A Writer. A Sculptor. A Glass Art Creator. A Painter.

I AM an individual who seeks edges of life where the nutrients of life fill Paedra's senses